BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1928

THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR, NO. 46.

CITY BAY ST. LOUIS TO GIVE ADDITIONAL THREE MILL TAX REDUCTION

Six Mill Reduction for This Year—Board of Supervisors With Road Protection Commission Concurring Makes This Possible—City to Get Part of Cash Balance

As a result of a joint meeting held Thursday by members of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock county, Board of Road Protection Commissioners of Hancock county and members of Commission Council of Bay St. Louis, a resolution was adopted wherein the county will pay over the city fund on January 1st $20,510.00.

On January 1st there will fall due and payable as an obligation of the city $17,000.00 seawall bonds and interest amounting to $3,510.00, totaling $20,510.00.

County Will Pay Money From Seawall Bond Fund

The Board of Supervisors, co-operating with the Road Protection Commission, will appropriate this money from a balance of some forty odd thousand dollars that will remain as a balance of the present fund realized from the sale of one million and a half dollars for the building of seawall and road protection along the riparian rights of North Bay St. Louis, Waveland, Clermont Harbor and Lakeshore.

City Taxes Doubly Reduced

As a result the city commissioners, Mayor Traub and Commissioners Laderer and Egloff, announced that in addition to the reduction of 3 mills in the tax levy fixed in September there will be another substantial reduction of three mills to apply in the payment of this year's taxes.

Levy for 1927 was 32 mills, reduced in August to 29 mills. November reduced to 26 mills. City tax-payers who have already paid their taxes for this fall and winter (1928) will get a cash refund.

The resolution that gives the city over $20,000 to retired seawall bonds, adopted at the joint meeting of Supervisors, Road Commissioners and City Commissioners, is as follows:

Whereas House Bill No. 374, Chapter 19, Laws of 1928, authorizing the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County and the Road Protection Commission of Hancock county to use the sinking gasoline tax bond fund for the purpose of relieving the tax-payers of the city of Bay St. Louis from direct ad valorem tax on betterment assessments, and authorizing the payment of said taxes on bonds issued for sea wall or road protection purposes. The said payment to be made from funds derived from sale of bonds or from the levy of gasoline taxes as provided for in said Chapter No. 19, etc.

Whereas the meeting is for the opinion that it is just and proper that county of Hancock do pay the sum of $17,000.00 and interest amounting to $3,510.00 or a total of $20,510.00, before the bond falling due on January 1, 1929.

Be it therefore resolved that this meeting recommend to the Board of Supervisors that the said sum of $20,510.00 be paid to the City of Bay St. Louis for the purpose of paying the bonds and interest due by the said city on January 1, 1929. Said amount be deducted from the general and special direct sea wall or road protection taxation of said city. The said money to be drawn out of the Road Protection Bond Fund and to be paid to the city in pursuance to Chapter 17, House Bill No. 374 of the Laws of 1928.

City's Seawall Bonded Obligation

In view of the fact that money from the county seawall bond fund has been appropriated to defray $17,000 city of Bay St. Louis seawall bonds due January 1, 1929, plus $3,000 interest, it is interesting to note something of the city's seawall bonded obligation.

On January 1, 1920, the city floated a bond issue of $100,000. On January 1, 1922 an additional issue of $70,000 was floated and on January 1, 1924, $6,000. Total seawall bonds, exclusive of a $5,000 issue predating the foregoing and long paid off, $176,000.00.

Bonds redeemed since January 1, 1920, $56,000, not including interest. Balance bonds to be redeemed $119,000.00. After January 1, 1929, county appropriation of $17,000 will leave balance $95,000.00.

REV. HARKEY MOVED TO MOUNT OLIVE, WILL LEAVE FRIDAY

New Pastor of Methodist Church is Rev. C. C. Clark Appointed by Conference

Rev. S. F. Harkey, pastor for the past two years of the First Methodist church in Bay St. Louis has been transferred by the Southern Methodist Conference which convened this past week at Philadelphia, to the Mt. Olive Church and he and his family will move Friday or Saturday of this week, so as to be at the new church prepared for the Sunday services. While resident here Mr. and Mrs. Harkey and attractive children and Rev. Harkey's mother who makes her home with them, have made many friends who regret their going and who wish them every success in their new work. Rev. Harkey's fine singing voice has brought pleasure to many who will miss his ministry so much as will his ministry as pastor.

Rev. C. C. Clark is the newly appointed pastor of the Bay Methodist church and he is expected to arrive here over the week-end. He and wife come highly recommended to the people of the church and community as excellent workers and fine people who will be an asset to the community.

Rev. Clark is an alumnus of Millsaps College where he received his A. B. degree. Later he studied at Emery and received his B. D. degree from that institution. Further graduate study resulted upon the conferring of the B. D. degree upon him from Yale University. Mrs. Clark received her master's degree from Yale. They come to the Bay from Lucedale church.

HIGHWAY WILL OPEN NEXT WEEK

Total of 68 Miles Concrete Paving Has been Completed to Lakeshore

The reinforced concrete highway from Bay St. Louis to Lakeshore will be opened to the public the first part of next week, according to an announcement made by J. C. Nisbet, engineer in charge for J. W. Billingsley, consulting engineer on the road work, as well as on the seawall project. The last of the concrete was poured October 31, by the Southern Paving Construction Company, contractors, and after the needed 20 days for the road to settle it will be opened to traffic.

The new roadway is a distance of 6.8 miles of 24-foot wide concrete pavement, which was started several months ago and upon which the work has progressed very well. The sidewalk and curb which are being placed at the south side of the roadway, joining roadway and top of seawall, and which is being done by Lee W. King, is completed almost to the stretch where the road is now open which is at Clermont Harbor.

Machinery has been moved north of Bay St. Louis for paving the rest of the contract, about 2.7 miles, and work is beginning at the Peerless factory site and will extend northward.

The entire paving project north of Bay St. Louis and all the sidewalk and curb should be completed by Christmas, Mr. Nisbet said.

Famous Humorist in Natural Role of Congressman in Screen Version

With one exception, former stage

celebrities compose the cast of First

mous play, "The Butter and Egg

Man."

Jack Mulhall, noted for years in "legitimate" and vaudeville, is featured in the title role of the epicure, which heads the bill at the A. & G. Theatre, Bay St. Louis, for Sunday and Monday. His beautiful young leading lady, Greta Nissen, however, earned her fame in pictures. Although her first American appearance was as a dancer in Winthrop Ames' production of "Beggar on Horseback."

Gertude Astor graduated into pictures after achieving wide recognition as a musical comedy and legitimate stage leading woman. Miss Astor is the Mrs. Lehman of "The Butter and Egg Man."

The plot of "The Butter and Egg Man" takes the spectator behind the scenes of play production in New York City, into the office of producers, the dressing rooms of stars, and behind the scenes of theatres. It also shows how plays are "tried out on the edge" in towns near New York.

It is particularly fitting, then, that stage players should enact the principal roles of the production. With so many experienced "hands" no expert in theatricals was needed to bring realism to the picture's representation of New York theatrical life.

DISCUSSES PLANNING OF CITIES

Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce Delegates Hear Gardner S. Rogers

The Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce was officially represented at the joint luncheon meeting at Gulfport, Hotel Markham roof, Thursday of last week to hear Gardner S. Rogers, assistant manager of the civic development department of the United States Chamber of Commerce, who was the guest for the day of the Gulfport Chamber of Commerce, and who addressed a membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis, Rotary, Young Men's Business, Exchange and Business and Professional Women's clubs, also a number of officials and civic leaders from all parts of the Coast. Chas. G. Moreau and Miss Mathilde Ladner were the delegates appointed from the Bay Chamber of Commerce and they were accompanied to the meet by Mrs. Moreau, who was also officially appointed.

Mr. Rogers discussed as his leading subject city planning stating: "A city's development depends on city planning."

Discussing the four main features of city planning, Mr. Rogers named these as thoroughfares, zoning, subdivision and recreation, pointing out that these phases interlaced. "Thoroughfares are permanent for the most part and therefore should have attention paid to their direction and width to carry for the traffic which they will serve," he said. In that a city can tell with a fair degree of accuracy the number of cars which will use the various roads, there should be no reason for a city the size of Gulfport to have traffic problems, he said.

Zoning, the second feature of city planning, is concerned with three types, residence, business and industry, according to the different types of service required, he said. "If one knows in advance what sections are to be developed for homes, business or industry, much money will be saved in developments," he said, and here zoning plays a strong part. "Zoning is a common sense procedure for all have traffic problems," he said.

Regarding subdivisions he pointed out that there should be some entranc control regarding width of streets and size of lots, and that subdivisions were the problem of the entire community.

He stressed the importance of recreational facilities especially here on the Coast. "A city must have recreational facilities located in a reasonable distance from the population and parks and playgrounds should be designed to serve the present population as well as that which is expected in the next few years," he said.

Mr. Rogers stated that there must be adequate legislation in order for any city to be well planned and developed. He advocated the formulation of a comprehensive program for which a sufficient improvement budget will be made based on a study of the city and Coast's needs. He stressed the entirety of the Coast—Gulfport is no longer a local city—making the problem a coast city problem. The MacCabe insurance is written as America's strongest all-family fraternal organization. MacCabees from Gulfport will aid the Bay St. Louis members in presenting the program.

A program has been arranged to be given at the public meeting which is planned to tell to the public some of the features of the MacCabe work, which is characterized as America's strongest all-family fraternal organization. MacCabees from Gulfport will aid the Bay St. Louis members in presenting the program.

This program is given at this time because the MacCabees are observing throughout the country where MacCabe insurance is written the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the lodge, which is open to men, women and children.

The program to be presented follows:

1. Musical selection
2. Flag Ceremony, four guards in uniform presenting national banner unfurled.

3. Song, America, by audience.

4. Invocation, by Thomas Machado, Chaplain.

5. Welcome Address, by F. F. Fayard, Com. Bay St. Louis Tent.

6. Pledge to MacCabees, by all members, led by D. V. Cochran.

7. Anniversary song, "Oh, MacCabees."

Bay St. Louis, Miss., under Act of March 3, 1879.GOV. SMITH'S VISIT TO THE COAST.

More than ordinary interest is manifested in the fact Governor Smith, of New York, accompanied by Chairman Raskob, Senator Pat Harrison and others, arrived on the Mississippi Gulf Coast this week and will remain for a visit of indefinite period.

Al Smith, as Governor of New York and as a citizen of this great country of ours, will be accorded a double welcome and hope is expressed that the distinguished visitor and party will enjoy the beauty and charm of the Mississippi Gulf Coast under the most favorable conditions, which in a sense is at its best during the period of golden fall.

The Mississippi Gulf Coast is signalized by the privilege of entertaining the Governor of the Empire State and his party, and this visit is another earnest of the fact this section is recognized nationally and is fast coming into its own as the greatest all-the-year-round resort in the country, outstanding over all others.

47 TIMES TO THE MOON.

Every package of cigarettes, which sells for 15 cents, pays a tax of six cents to the federal government. The interesting part of this statement is the fact that few smokers ever realize the tax is there.

For instance, a man who smokes "a pack a day" is contributing almost $22 to the federal government, in indirect, unfelt and unobjectionable taxation. In some states, where an additional tax, in the form of stamps, has been placed on cigarettes, the howls raised have been all out of proportion to the amount involved.

It is said that 105 billion cigarettes will be made this year. An astute statistician figures out that these fags, placed end to end, would make 47 rows to the moon, with enough left over to circle the globe twice.

CO-OPERATE WITH HOOVER.

In the first flush of his great victory President-elect Herbert Hoover realizes the great responsibility that will descend upon him next March. After thanking the people of the nation, "who without regard to section or interest," supported him he declares:

"I can only succeed in my part by the cooperation and unity of spirit of all leaders of opinion and of action for the common service of our country."

Genuine Americans, regardless of party will take pleasure in extending their best wishes to the newly elected leader of the world's greatest democracy, and all citizens of Bay St. Louis, without regard to party, should truly hope for his administration the greatest possible success.

BEAUTIFICATION OF THE COAST.

At a meeting and banquet tendered to the Gulf Coast Hotel Men's Association in Bay St. Louis Thursday night, the fact was brought out nature has contributed all for this section and man very little.

It was pointed out that this winter would witness on the Coast the largest number of visitors and tourists in its history, and advanced reservations with some of the larger hotels confirmed this.

It was urged beautification must be carried on, even unto the inhabitant of the most humble dwelling. We have entirely too many "aching voids" in our front yard line.

A WORD ABOUT BOOKS.

This is National Book Week, another of the weeks that make the year famous. However, we think there ought to be some time in which to emphasize the importance of good books. This week, being proclaimed under such a title, suggests that it will be a good time.

The Sea Coast Echo would like to see more books read in Hancock County. Just how it can be accomplished escapes us. One good suggestion is the formation of a neighborhood book club, each member of which obligates to buy a book a month, and all members having the privilege of reading the books of other members.

A modern library in Bay St. Louis may be impossible but that is no reason why our people should not take some steps to furnish good reading matter to our people. Let's not wait for the impossible. The prime purpose of a library is to foster reading and study. It can be done without much overhead or expense if people really want books.

Individual books have been known to change the entire lives of people. A good biography, a fascinating novel, or a story of travel alike stimulate the mind and afford pleasure to those who read. Parents, in particular, should see that children get an opportunity to read good books.

There may be readers of this article who would like to be advised as to what books will suit their purpose or fit their choice. The Sea Coast Echo will be glad to advise anyone who will write a letter, outlining his or her desires, and enclose a stamp for reply. Address your query to "New Books," care The Sea Coast Echo.

FORGET POLITICAL ARGUMENTS.

The election is over. Let the people of Bay St. Louis forget the differences that have divided them and remember that after all, most of the people are trying to do the right. Let us all set aside animosities and continue to work together without regard to political arguments. The people of this section of South Mississippi and the Gulf Coast have too much work along development lines and other channels to pause in after election thoughts.

The Republicans are entitled to satisfaction over the enormous victory. Do not begrudge them the elation that naturally follows such a triumph. The Democrats can secure some comfort from the fact that their candidate almost doubled the vote of his party, his total vote almost equaling that of President Coolidge four years ago. Do not leave them without hope.

That the campaign was marked with much bitterness was regrettable, even if such feelings are necessarily aroused in the heat of political argument. From many states come stories of fight and killings over politics, which is surely a foolish thing to fight over.

The absurd stories circulated over the country about the two very fine men who led their parties are a disgrace to the intelligence of our people. Yet, undoubtedly, there were votes determined by those baseless charges. The quicker they are forgotten the better we will be.

JOIN THE RED CROSS.

The annual roll call of the American Red Cross is now going on. The people of Bay St. Louis are familiar with the splendid work of this organization. They should be glad to be associated in such a work of mercy. The cost of annual membership is only $1, and it seems that every adult could spare two cents a week in order to keep alive an agency that does such fine work in time of disaster.

To look at the situation from a purely selfish standpoint, Bay St. Louis would look to the Red Cross for relief, if a great natural calamity should befall it. Throughout the nation other communities do the same. Year in and year out this organization responds to numerous calls for relief, and only in rare cases, does it apply to the public for national assistance. In cases like the recent hurricane and the Mississippi flood, where disaster causes such widespread suffering, the importance of a national collecting agency is invaluable.

The Sea Coast Echo urges every citizen to join the Red Cross at once. Jos. O. Mauffray is county chairman, Geo. R. Rea, treasurer.

BROADCASTING INTELLIGENCE.

The widespread use of the radio in the recent election, which enabled many people in Hancock County to listen to the candidates has probably revolutionized public addresses. The influence may not be clearly recognized today but candid observers know that the day of the political welkin-ringer has passed.

The listener, sitting in his own room, will not respond to hokum or bunkum with the enthusiasm of a crowd swept off its feet by the presence of a hypnotic speaker. Words alone carry the radio message, which must, it seems, be addressed to the intelligence of the listener, rather than to his emotion.

This is, we believe, a great development. The future political campaign will probably depend more and more upon the broadcasted speech and less upon personal tours. Strange as it may seem, the future campaigns will also depend more than ever on the printed speech of the campaigner.

A SUCCESSFUL POLL.

The election has demonstrated conclusively that the poll conducted by the Literary Digest is a true indicator of how the people will vote.

Its final figures indicated an unprecedented victory for Herbert Hoover, allotting to Governor Smith only six Southern states. The election, while giving the New York governor a few more votes in the Electoral College, demonstrated that the Literary Digest was right in forty-six out of forty-eight states.

This is about what might be termed a successful poll, much to the surprise of The Sea Coast Echo.

A HINT TO CONGRESS.

Since the celebration has passed, it might be a good time to hope that the new Congress, when it convenes, will reappportion the membership of the house in accordance with the constitutional provision.

There can be no excuse for the failure of Congressmen, which robs eight states of their lawful representation. If this had been done, thirteen congressmen would not have had an opportunity to offer for reelection and eleven states would have lost representatives.

DR. FRANK CRANETHE INTELLECTUAL LIFE.

It is refreshing to note that a memorandum from the Student Council has been addressed to the university authorities at Yale formulating a series of reforms upholding the proposition that a college is primarily a place for study, and only incidentally for social and athletic recreation.

This will be refreshing to a number of fathers who are digging in to pay the expenses of their sons at school and heretofore have been worried because those sons seem to be more interested in sports and in social advantages than in intellectual improvement.

Of course every healthy boy is interested in athletics and is anxious to form proper social connections. But the general impression prevails among fathers that boys ought to go to school to improve themselves from the chin up and not from the chin down.

It has been too often the case that boys have attached a social stigma to those who get class marks higher than C. Those who go in for study have been characterized as "sharks," or "grinds." Reference to one's studies in social life has been looked upon as disdain and the only thing to be boasted is a place on the football team or the rowing crew.

Of course a boy is a healthy animal and he doesn't care to be subjected to intellectual snobbery, but at the same time, this New Haven memorandum asserts, a college finds its reason for being and its prestige in the achievements of the intellectual minority among students.

It has been generally presumed that the youth of the country is somewhat wild and is out for a good time only. Those who emphasize that things are intellectual in any group of people must necessarily be referring to the young, but it is refreshing to see that this minority has been coming in to better repose during the last fifteen years. There are probably quite as many serious minded youth in the country as there ever were. Youth is not at all out for a wastrel life. There still remains quite a number of the elect. And on the whole the prospect for a better world in the future is bright.

This memorandum suggests that after the first two years the men who are assiduous in their studies are to be separated from those who are going in for a good time and barely enough study to get by. The honor men's instructors should be largely tutorial and they should have the best men on the faculty.

It is needless to say that this proposal of the undergraduates has the entire sympathy of the faculty.

PUPILS, TEACHERS ASKED FOR FUNDS TO AID CRIPPLES

State Superintendent Bond Urges Gifts to Benefit Crippled Children

Jackson, Nov. 15.—The school boys and girls and teachers of the state during the last several years have made a Thanksgiving offering for the benefit of the crippled boys and girls, W. F. Bond, state superintendent of education, said.

"The state has no funds with which to pay hospital bills, railroad fare and a few other things very necessary outlays for crippled children, consisting of twenty-five cents from each teacher and ten cents from the pupils and students of our high schools and colleges will be sufficient to guarantee that no cripple shall lack for any kind of treatment or service that would help him. We are therefore calling again upon the superintendents and principals and teachers of all the schools of the state to make a contribution themselves and give the boys and girls they teach an opportunity to make a Thanksgiving offering. The price of two ice cream cones, two packages of chewing gum or three eggs will collect the small contribution suggested for children. This is a real opportunity for the thoughtful teacher to have a fine lesson on helpfulness, service and brotherly love," he said.

"The money will be spent under the head of the Mississippi Society for Crippled Children, cooperating with the Mississippi Department of Civilian Rehabilitation," Mr. Bond said. R. H. Molpus of Philadelphia is president of this society, Mrs. Mary S. Baker, executive secretary and W. F. Bond, treasurer.

All contributions should be sent direct to W. F. Bond, treasurer, State Department of Education, Jackson.

Be it further ordered by the Board that the successful bidder furnish bond in the amount of his bid.

Be it ordered by the Board that the Board adjourn until Tuesday morning, November 7, 1928, at 9 o'clock A. M.

H. S. WESTON, President.

Tuesday morning, November 6, 1928, Board met pursuant to adjournment, present as on yesterday, and motion duly made and seconded is ordered by the Board that the Board adjourn until Wednesday morning, November 7th, 1928, at 9 o'clock A. M.

H. S. WESTON, President.

Wednesday morning, November 7, 1928, Board met pursuant to adjournment, present as on yesterday.

Whereas the Clerk of this board has certified to the State Tax Commission at Jackson, Mississippi, copies of the assessment rolls of Hancock county, and whereas the said Clerk has certified their correctness to this Board, be it therefore ordered by the Board that the orders of the State Tax Commission be and they are hereby ordered spread upon the minutes of the Board.

Be it therefore ordered by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County in regular session that the sum of $3750.00 for 1928 and the sum of $15,000.00 from the Hancock County Bank at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, at the rate of six per cent per annum thereon from this day until said loan shall be paid, said loan to mature on the 15th day of February, 1929, and that Emilio Cue, President Pro-tem of this Board (Supervisor H. S. Weston, President of this Board, having declined to participate in the proceedings relative to said loan, and having relinquished the chair to the said Emilio Cue) do execute the promissory note of Hancock County Bank, through its Board of Supervisors evidencing said loan and its said terms, and that said note be paid by the Clerk of this Board and delivered to said Hancock County Bank upon its paying over the principal sum of said loan to the account of Hancock County to the County.

Kilm, Catahoula, Standard, Baggett, Pearlington, Log-town and Gainesville

The second annual community fairs, Hancock county, by the colored residents, were held at Kilm and Pearlington November 7 and 10, with the following communities participating: Kilm, Catahoula, Standard, Baggett, Pearlington, Logtown and Gainesville. The interest and enthusiasm manifested by clubs and communities surpassed all previous records, and every phase of extension work was well represented. The fairs opened with parades which had creditable displays of interesting and artistic decorated floats and automobiles.

At Kilm the household art department showed 43 dresses, 7 aprons, 2 night shirts, 8 quilts, 4 rugs, 14 undergarments, 3 sewing bags, 6 cup towels. The laundry department showed shirts, dresses and dyed articles and soap. The culinary department had rolls, biscuits, cookies, doughnuts, muffins, yeast bread, loaf and layer cakes and candies. A beautiful display of 333 standard containers of canned fruits, vegetables, juices, jellies, marmalades and preserves was the special attraction of the fair. The renovation of furniture showed a bed room and dining room suite. The farm home conveniences showed hats, racks, axe handles, towel racks, porch swing, swing priscilla wood box and trays. A very splendid exhibit of agricultural and garden products were shown by the men and women of different communities. Kilm, Catahoula and Baggett had school booths.

At Pearlington the household art department showed 29 dresses, 15 undergarments, 21 guest and cup towels, 2 pot lifters, 3 sewing bags, 2 laundry bags, 5 aprons, 4 rugs, 11 quilts, 1 bed spread, 1 sheet, 13 hand craft articles. The laundry department showed dresses, shirts, dyed and homes made up. The culinary department had biscuits, muffins, rolls, candies, loaf and layer cake. The canning department showed 144 containers of preserved food stuff. The special attraction was the home improvement work, beautifully displayed in an ivory suite of furniture which had been made from discarded chairs, bed, dresser, washstand and wardrobe with draperies and spread in rose, and the kitchen set, a nicely covered table with oilcloth, home made wood box and kitchen cabinet furniture done in white paint. The farm beauty convenience showed swings, chairs, axe handle and tables. A new splendid display of agricultural and garden products were made by the men and women of the communities. The poultry department showed Barred Rocks and Reds. Two very fine hogs were exhibited. Special mention must be made of the very excellent work shown in the school booths of Pearlington and Logtown, where every phase of school work was so creditably represented.

The educational feature which represented the passing of the old kitchen, the "defered hope cemetery," sacred to the memory of countless women who needed tools, not tombstones, and the ten good health rules attracted much attention and many lessons were gotten from the lecture demonstrations given at intervals by

The reunion of the surviving delegates of the constitutional convention of 1890 in this city on November 1, 1928, was voted a great success. There were eight of the fourteen surviving delegates present, namely: J. W. Cutrer, A. B. Guynes, John E. Gore, Pat Henry, Will T. McDonald, J. S. Sexton, R. H. Thompson and T. S. Ward. The six delegates absent were: John A. Bailey, D. R. Barnett, J. B. Booth, R. B. Campbell, N. C. Hathorn and S. H. Turner, each of whom sent a feeling letter of regret at their inability to be present. Chairman Thompson presided and made a great speech. The guests of honor were Chief Justice Sydney Smith, Associate Justices Geo. H. Ethridge, W. H. Cook, Wm. D. Anderson, J. G. McGowen, W. J. Pack, Attorney-General Rush H. Knox, Secretary of State Walker Wood who had the constitution enacted in 1890 and signed by the delegates with him and Hon. W. A. Dickson of Wilkins county.

Fine speeches were made by Chief Justice Smith, Associate Justice Ethridge, Attorney-General Knox and Secretary of State Wood. A rising vote of thanks was given to Edgar S. Wilson, secretary, and Chairman Thompson and Major Pat Henry eulogized him. Chairman Thompson designated Mr. Wilson as their commander-in-chief, and stated that without him "the reunion of 1928 would not have been held." An elegant luncheon was given by the delegates by Col. Lloyd T. Binford of Memphis in honor of his lamented father, Col. J. R. Binford, an outstanding member of the constitutional convention. Col. Lloyd T. Binford was absent on account of illness but sent a feeling telegram. A resolution of thanks to Col. Lloyd T. Binford was adopted by a rising vote.
